Packing for the Park Mission

Today is the day! Kyra is going to walk to the park without her dad. It's a very important mission, one that'll help Kyra grow her confidence even more.

Along for the journey she has invited Zippy, Rolley, Freddie and Finley. Of course, they are best friends in the More Roar Dinosaur Universe.

It was a bright breezy morning and Kyra was packing her magic backpack.

Ear Defenders:

Oh no! Kyra can't find her ear defenders. She searched high and low all around her bedroom.

Under the bed?

No

In the wardrobe?

No

Behind the Arts & Crafts cupboard?

No!

Kyra look

Kyra shouted down to her dad, "dad, have you seen my ear defenders anywhere?".

The response came, "No, sorry, check your inside your toy box".

Kyra looked inside her toy box and...

No... still no ear defenders to be found!

"Right", she said determinedly, "I'll call in the guys early to help me out before we leave"

So, in bounced Rolley....

In zoomed Finley...

In danced Zippy...

And in giggled Freddie...

Kyra thanked her friends for coming to help in the search. She explained that she had looked everywhere. Even dad didn't know where they were. It might be loud on the way to the park and I might need them, what should I do?
